Using UPS Paperless® Commercial Invoices can Reduce Customs Holds up to 52 percent

- Submit your commercial invoice and, when needed, the NAFTA Certificate of Origin, electronically when shipping packages or air freight internationally
  - Works seamlessly with UPS® automated shipping systems to streamline your international shipment processing, saving staff hours needed to prepare documentation
  - Eliminates redundant data entry and errors, while reducing customs delays
  - Makes it easier for you to prepare shipments and for customs to process
  - Reduces paper waste, which saves money and is more sustainable

Your Product has Shipped and is in Transit.. Now What?

- UPS International Rates include brokerage service
- UPS Broker ensures that all documentation is submitted to customs
- Local knowledge of customs processes throughout the world reduces delays and red tape
- 97% of all packages cleared the same day
  - More than 275 licensed brokers across the U.S.
- Routine clearance included in most international package delivery rates
- Use your broker with UPS Broker of Choice® service*
  - Maintain established relationships, while taking advantage of our shipping efficiency

UPS's customs brokerage begins clearing shipments before the plane even arrives. Industry experts call that "wheels up" clearance, but we think of it as diligent customer service.
