

Hawai'i SBDC & VBOC of the Pacific present

How to Start a Small Business

Thursday, January 18, 2018

10 am to 12 noon

(ASL Interpreters will be present at this session)

Hawai'i SBDC proudly presents its entrepreneurship class on the "basics" of starting a business in Hawai'i. New business owners may also attend to validate the foundation of their business.

This class will address:

- Characteristics of an Entrepreneur
- Building a Solid Foundation to Start Your Business (Types of Legal Entities, Business Registration, Business Plans, etc.)
- Key Elements to Consider Before Investing Money or Time in Your New Business
- Access to Capital and More

Presenter: Lori Hiramatsu

Senior Business Advisor who has 30+ years of banking experience. She has assisted numerous businesses in various stages of their business life-cycle and assisted them to obtain capital for their business needs. Besides her commercial banking and lending background, she is knowledgeable of SBA loan programs, and has experience in the financing of PV systems via the SBA 504 Loan Program.
