APPENDIX 1. ARTICLES, REPORTS AND STORIES BY MEDIA REPRESENTATIVES TO HAWAII

Hawaii typically comes to mind when you are thinking of a holiday, but it is also a good example of diversity and harmony in the United States — two traits which draw international students besides foreign visitors.

However, a recent survey of 250 institutions of higher education across the US by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers reported a nearly 40 percent decline in overall applications from international students seeking to study in the US.

But, despite the setback Hawaii is still drawing international students.

A survey by the US Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism Research and Economic Analysis Division, shows that Japan is the top country of origin for Hawaii's international students, and China comes in at third place.

Xiao Qingsong, a 10th-grade student at the Maui Preparatory Academy loves Hawaii.

Speaking about his experiences in Hawaii, he says: "With a better living environment, relatively cleaner air, and less pressure from studies, I am pleased to study here."

Xiao, who recalls that he did not get enough time to play piano back home three years ago, says: "Now, I have more time to practice the piano, and I am making a lot of progress."

Moreover, Xiao has more choices when it comes to outdoor sports — like surfing — he says.

Scott Siegfried, the vice-president of External Affairs at the Mid-Pacific Institute, says around 6 percent of their students are international students, and the majority are from Asian countries.

"One reason why international students choose Hawaii is proximity," says Siegfried.

"Besides, Hawaii is a very safe place. And I think all this is a very natural fit for students."

Mindu Lham, a Bhutanese undergraduate student at the University of Hawaii, says Hawaii offers a good environment specially for Asians.

"Also, as it is relatively near to Asia, it is easy for travel. And its weather and beautiful environment are some of the other factors why people choose to study here," says Lham.

Hawaii not only lets international students gain qualifications, but also helps local Hawaiian students gain global exposure.

Dawn Amano-Ige, the first lady of Hawaii and an educator, says international students are important for the development of Hawaiian students.

"When we have students coming from different parts of the world to Hawaii, they learn about native Hawaiian culture and language. And I think that it helps to make for a better world," she says.

"The more we understand cultures, languages and beliefs, the better we can appreciate each other."

For now, though China ranks third as in student numbers, with 695 Chinese students, in Hawaii, according to an official survey, many of the state's schools are still interested in more Chinese students.

Speaking about the issue, Judy Ensing, the program director of International Programs of Outreach College, University of Hawaii, says: "The main challenge for us is that people in China don't really know about the kind of programs we have."

"And I think the hard part is to get the word out to them."

Speaking about the push, Hokulani Holt, the director of UH Maui College, says: "Our college provides students with opportunities to use their knowledge, interact with people from all over the world and learn skills that you can use to improve your life and that of the whole family."

Separately, according to the Study Hawaii Education Consortium, some of reasons why Hawaii is sought by international students are safety, the weather, cultural diversity, and convenient transportation options.

According to the 2017 Hawaii International Education Survey by the Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism of Hawaii, international students in Hawaii are also a contributor to its economy.

As of 2017, Hawaii had a total of 10,803 international students, and more than $484 million was added to the state's total economic output over the year, according to DBEDT.

精英教育和素质教育的平衡之选

当提及夏威夷的教育时，很多人的反应是“那不是个度假吃喝玩乐的地方吗？”夏威夷确实属于出国留学的冷门选择，但在我眼里却是个很适合去美国求学的起始之地。

位于太平洋交通要道上的夏威夷是东西方交汇之处，由132个岛屿组成，是美国的第五十个州，种族非常多元，据2010年美国人口统计，夏威夷有38.6%人口是亚裔美国人，比例居美国第一，白人比例为24.7%，为全美最低。

由于种族多元，夏威夷有与众不同的文化氛围，包容而和谐；由于自然环境优越，夏威夷的人都很快乐，很少为了竞争而咬紧牙关。所以这是到美国留学一个很好的起点选择，在这里，能更好的适应另外一种文化。当我向一名在夏威夷圣路易斯高中（St.Louis High School）就读的来自北京的男生询问在夏威夷是否会感受到

提及夏威夷，多数人脑海里出现的是“蓝天白云，水清沙幼，椰风树影”，而未曾想到在这一片岛屿上有着完善的高等教育体系。

最大的马诺阿分校(University of Hawaii Manoa, 简称UHM)是这一系统的旗舰校, 坐落在夏威夷首府檀香山的一个美丽的山谷中, 距离著名的威基基海滩和钻石山都不远, 有着绝佳的校园环境。学生人数总共有19000多人, 国际学生占7%。

受益于得天独厚的自然环境，夏威夷是自然科学的最佳实验室，夏威夷大学在地球科学，海洋学等专业上非常强大，拥有最顶级的天文望远镜，也有着先进的海洋科考船。

马诺阿分校的地球与海洋科学学院(School of Ocean and Earth Science & Technology, SOEST)是美国最好的海洋与地球科学研究机构之一,尤其是海洋生物学和物理海洋研究方向,在美国以及全球的排名都很高。其中海洋科学(Ocean Science)和热带气象(Tropical Meteorology)全美排名TOP3,地质和地球科学(Geology and Geophysics)全美排名TOP5。

针对中国学生，地球与海洋科学学院和中国高校推出了3+2项目，参与项目的学生可以在5年内拿到1个学士学位和1个硕士学位。前三年在国内完成除毕业论文以外的所有专业核心课程，后两年在马诺阿校区完成硕士课程。两年年均花费只要38,456美金(含食宿及旅费)，真是排名不错，花费不贵的选择。

同时由于夏威夷位于太平洋交通要道, 这里天生成为东西方两种文化交汇的热点, 基于这个区位优势夏威夷大学的研究可谓在世界上数一数二, 其对中国、日本和韩国的文化、政治、经济研究颇具西方特色, 因此马诺亚校区的世界学院(Shidler College of Business)也别具特色。既融合了美国本土优势, 也为学生提供了学习了解亚太地区法律和商务知识的机会, 学生生涯面对的是不断地高速发展的“亚太”地区。法学院专注于美国法律和亚洲法律的比较, 商学院专注于对亚洲商业的研究, 和中国及香港的大专和企业都建立了紧密的联系。其中赛德商学院的MBA是美国唯一针对“亚太”地区的商务硕士学位。

看点：“这个世界有三类问题：第一类，简单问题，比如如何抛出曲线球；第二类，复杂问题，比如人类登月；第三类，还有比登月更难的问题吗？是的，那就是教育孩子的问题。”

这是纪录片《世界的孩子：我在美国读高中》的片头语，这部纪录片用镜头记录了中国留学生在美国高中的学习和生活故事。

这些来自中国的孩子，到美国读高中就意味着选择了一套完全不同于国内教育的体系。在这里，学习不再是知识的识记，而是对世界的建构，借助前人的研究建构属于自己的认知体系。

特色留学目的地夏威夷 国际教育的新选择

"Aloha!"是夏威夷语中"你好!"的意思。简单的音节像热情似火的阳光，瞬间带你进入享受海岛风情的狂欢模式。多年来，夏威夷的大小岛屿以"阿罗哈"的精神欢迎着来自世界各地的游客。

坐落于碧波浩渺的太平洋上，由火山喷发形成的岛屿构成，夏威夷群岛气候温和，物产丰富，风景旖旎而被誉为地球上的天堂。在人们的印象中，它似乎只是旅游度假的代名词。其实不然，这里不光是令人向往的度假胜地，也是国际教育的重镇。众多优势使夏威夷成为最具特色的留学目的地，正吸引越来越多的中国学生前往留学或游学。

无论学生家长是想为孩子进入美国各州大学继续深造奠定基础，还是希望让孩子接受具有国际视野的本科教育，都可以在夏威夷找到合适的学校。据了解，夏威夷有许多知名的K-12学校，比如被《华盛顿邮报》排名全美大学预备学校第30，拥有40多个学生俱乐部和100多个体育社团的卡夫太平洋学校，两次获得国际机器人比赛冠军，STEM专业优势纳拉尼学校等。

成立于1863年的伊奥拉尼（Iolani School）学校被公认为美国顶尖的大学预科学校之一，从幼儿园到12年制的有2000名学生。民主革命先行者孙中山1879年至1882年也曾就读于此。为了参观这所培育少年孙中山的学校，每年都有来自世界各地的访客伊奥拉尼学校一游。今天我们在校园里还能看到竖起的孙中山铜像，少年孙中山手抱书本，脚步轻快，面向东北方，即面向中国方向。

在K-12学校接受通识教育后，学生可以进一步进入高等教育（学院、大学和研究）学习。在夏威夷有四年制的综合性大学，也有两年制的社区大学，几乎每个主要岛屿上都傲视着有优秀的文理学院、专业学院和研究所等，可以满足学生不同的教育需求。

夏威夷高等教育体系以夏威夷大学为首，优势专业涵盖天文学、海洋及地球科学、生物技术、热带农业、环境保护、亚太研究、旅游、酒店管理、餐饮服务等众多学科。从高山悬崖到茂密的森林和美丽的海湾，多样化的生态系统地质学、植物学、海洋科学、天文学、热带农业、火山研究、环境保护等提供了广泛的自然实验室，为学生提供了独特的研究机会。旅游是夏威夷州最重要的产业，有不少学生前来学习旅游业、酒店及餐饮业管理课程。

PART 3. IMPORTANT NEWS AND TRENDS FOR THE NEXT YEAR

- Positive news: Companies providing services to assist study abroad no longer need permit
- Trade relations between the USA and China also affects educational exchanges between the two countries. Though the U.S. Embassy repeatedly said that there is no restriction on student visa issuance, we have noticed that at least there is tighter screening and longer waiting time. We know of instances that applicants don't get visa interview in three months and some of them choose to accept offers from other countries.

- There is also wide-spread speculation that the U.S. is to restrict number of students trying to be enrolled in science related disciplines.
- A few contingencies affected travels to Hawaii: Volcano eruption, cancellation of some Hawaiian Airline's flights
- Chinese schools get directives that they need to get approval from the local education office before receiving foreign educational groups to campus
- For short term student exchanges, Chinese schools are required to visit partner schools only
