Takamine has met with farmers on Maui and O‘ahu to discuss growing most of the produce on Maui and O‘ahu to be able to supply food vendors to feed our visiting delegations. Planning for 9,000 meals/day for around 18 days will be a big undertaking. We expect that we can help our local economy by growing as much of our own food to support our local farmers and food vendors.

FR: S360 Hawai‘i
RE: Communications update

The following information provides an update on the latest communications services and results to date.

LATEST UPDATES

CPAC:

- At the last Commission meeting, S360 was asked to find a photographer to take the group photo for CPAC on September 10th. Since August 14th, a photographer has been tentatively booked and is awaiting information. Cost for photographer is: $350, which includes 50 8x10 prints with a logo.
- We are awaiting information from our inquiry to PA‘I Foundation on August 21st and August 28th regarding the number of prints needed and ensuring payment is made to photographer upon completion of the work.

Meeting with media partner:

- KHON-TV: S360 met with the general manager, news director and a sales representative to discuss options for promotion of the festival across all platforms, including news coverage and lifestyle programs.
- KHON-TV expressed a desire to be a sponsor of FESTPAC Hawai‘i; and, would like exclusive broadcast privileges, i.e. the station that shows the ceremonies.
- As the programming is still unconfirmed, we discussed the option of exclusive sponsorship in the broadcast/livestream of the Parade of Nations/Kamehameha Day Parade.
- As S360 is not handling sponsorship, we would like to set up a follow up meeting with the designated sponsorship lead to discuss partnership/sponsorship options.
Website: www.festpachawaii.org

- The FESTPAC website continues to be populated with promotional features. It is ready to include information on travel for delegates, information for visitors, and other pertinent information as it becomes available.

NEIGHBOR ISLAND ARRIVAL AND HOSTING PLAN
Wa’a communities on Kaua‘i, Moloka‘i, and Maui have confirmed their commitment to host at least one visiting wa’a each, and Hawai‘i can host at least two. This approach has broad support as more people will be able to get involved in the Festival (not just those on O‘ahu and Hawai‘i Island). It also has the capacity to bring an island community together, especially the youth, to offer hospitality and express pride in their respective island heritages, traditions, and places.

There is also recognition of an alternative proposal raised by Kalepa Baybayan that all the visiting wa’a go to Hilo, then Kalalau and then O‘ahu. Ultimately, it is ‘Ohana Wa’a’s decision regarding neighbor island hosting of the wa’a, therefore we defer to Dennis Chun and ‘Ohana Wa’a leadership to determine which approach they prefer.

CURRENT O‘AHU ARRIVAL PLAN
Nainoa Thompson endorses the plan below which was put together by the ‘Aha Moananuiākea planning team with guidance from Jeanne Ishikawa, Deputy Director of the City and County of Honolulu Parks and Recreation.

No official planning has taken place yet regarding the overnight staging at Maunalua Bay on 6/8/20. However, the METC at Sand Island is confirmed to serve as a home base for the voyaging canoes from 6/9/20 and throughout the duration of the festival.

Regarding the Wa’a Arrival Ceremony on 6/10/20, applications for permits for Ke‘ehi Lagoon Beach Park have been submitted, halls are being rented, and plans are underway to secure tents and staging for the field area. The current O‘ahu plan (which is still evolving) is as follows:
Mon. 6/8/20
- Local Wa’a and Visiting Wa’a arrive at Maunalua Bay for mooring.
- Overnight only (no extended stays).

Tues. 6/9/20
- Between 8 AM and 3PM, All Wa’a (about 10) will slowly sail consecutively along the south shore of O‘ahu, passing Waikīkī and into Māmala Bay, eventually arriving at METC. All wa’a will tie up in the afternoon and stage overnight for the public ceremony the following day.
- The mass movement of wa’a is a historical spectacle in itself. The sail will be widely publicized and well-covered by media, but no public ceremony of any kind will take place.

Wed. 6/10/20
- All Wa’a will be under “kapu” which precludes any public engagement – it will just be the crews of the various wa’a coming together privately at METC to strengthen relationships, pule, share ‘awa, eat, and sleep aboard their vessels overnight. No visitors are allowed during the period of kapu.

Thurs. 6/11/20
- KAMEHAMEHA DAY – LEI DRAPING AT THE STATUE AND FEST-PAC OPENING CEREMONY AT ‘IOLANI PALACE
- No wa’a activity. All crews to attend opening festivities at the Palace.

Fri 6/12/20 – Sat. 6/20/20
- Festival of Pacific Arts and Culture

Sun. 6/21/20
- FEST-PAC CLOSING CEREMONY AT KAPI‘OLANI PARK
- No wa’a activity. All crews to attend closing festivities at the Park.
