   Fundraising
   a. 7/18 Lenna Aoki (Sen. Brian Shatz office) regarding federal funding
      • Economic Development Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce. Honolulu EDA program officer Herb Thweatt, hthweatt@eda.gov, Native Hawaiian Cultural Center/FESTPAC
      • USDA – there are loans and grants available, but they should clearly be for activities in rural areas. This is where some of the neighbor island activities can come in.
      • Department of the Interior Insular Perhaps they would have in kind or small discretionary funds to contribute. Worth conversation: https://www.doioi.gov/oia/.
   b. 7/17 Follow up mtg with Denise Yamaguchi, Hawai‘i Food & Wine regarding sponsorship development/marketing & advertising
   c. 7/10 Norah Wimer, Community Liazon, – Sen. Mazie Hirono’s Honolulu office regarding participation and funding for FESTPAC

Nā Kumuhana Kahiko
Kuinselani potential September visit and request for:

1. The possibility of engaging Richard Broadbridge and Click TV to provide broadcasting/ TV coverage on FestPac to Pacific states;
2. The proposal to hold the Pacific Philosophy Conference as part of the FestPac programme – this could be one of the forums held during the Festival like we did in Guam. I will forward a concept note on the conference so you can see the direct
