PRESENTATION, DISCUSSION AND/OR ACTION REGARDING THE FESTIVAL DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Festival Director (FD) Salā presented updates on programming, including ceremonies, special events, and venues, marketing and promotions, observed challenges, and forward momentum. Sala shared on the Waa Arrival Ceremony, specifically chosen to take place in Hakipuu as it was the birthplace of Hokulea. This was a historical occasion that has never happened in Hawaii, welcoming 25 countries in engagement with pacific voyaging canoes and community. FD recognized Bonnie Kahape'a-Tanner of Kānehūnāmoku Voyaging Academy and her team's work in partnership with the department of Parks and Recreation. FD noted this division observed challenges with plumbing overflowing from the facilities into the kitchen, needing to work through this obstacle at the beginning of the event. The Marumaru Atua, the canoe from the Cook Islands, was moved from Kualoa at the invitation of the Polynesian Voyaging Society and Nainoa Thompson. They sailed around Oahu from the METC in conjunction with Honolulu Community College to the Thompson house. Marumaru Atua had departed very early on from Tahiti, staying for the duration of the festival, and only just recently departed from Oahu due to unsafe weather conditions.

Regarding the opening ceremony, Hawaii has officially held the longest opening ceremony in FestPAC history to date, with Guam's opening ceremony being just under eight hours. The festival village opened on June 7th, with the first major event being the sister city signing- a historic occasion between the Cook Islands and Honolulu, connected to state departments 7 for 70, on the main festival stage. The Young Pacific Leaders Program (YPL) annual engagement is hosted through the US Embassy and New Zealand took place over the course of the festival, and has tripled their funding as result of this engagement. Dr. Kirk Campbell shared with the state department US Embassy and New Zealand, recognizing how meaningful this event was to the Young Pacific Leaders program. Several different iterations of this program are in effect- regarding entrepreneurship, international diplomacy, women's entrepreneurship, etc. A total of 13 or so programs are supported by YPL. Mara Hosoda hosts this program out of her office in the US Embassy in Auckland and reached out to FD early on to ask if there were any possible synergies to utilize FestPAC as a platform for the YPL program. This represented Hawaii's first engagement with YPL- with gratitude to Hosoda and the New Zealand US Embassy, and Makanani Sala of Gravitas Pasifika who majorly assisted in composing this event.

Regarding the ecumenical service, this was a departure from services in the past as countries were invited to share hymns and scripture. There was a slight logistics challenge with the audio equipment on this date, however the event carried on successfully. With acknowledgements to Kawaiahao Church's senior pastor Ken Makuakāne and ministered music by Buddy Naluai, Papamakua, Wendell Davis, Rennie Mau, Kahu Hailama Farden, and Reverend Falelua Falelua. FD then shared he had numerous feedback comments on the festival's opening ceremony, with a youth group from Micronesia opening the ecumenical service being a favorite for many.

Chair took a moment to state that reporting for the festival would take some time to finalize, as invoices are still being received and being responded to in regards to FD Sala's final report in fulfillment of his contract to DBEDT.

Chair then requested that the admin committee assist in these preparations.

Chair then asked of Commissioners Onishi and Keohokālole to inquire to legislature to see if the commission could sunset earlier than August of 2025, and if in the next session the commission could consider legislation that would allow them to end sooner.

FD Sala continued his report, noting that the last of delegations had departed on June 29th. GP and team continue to follow-up with those voyaging by sea daily. FD then shared that Chair Ka'anā'anā has given the commission a series of deadlines for final reporting. Of the challenges observed- regarding meal distribution, as a result of movement across O'ahu island, food transportation became difficult. As well as individuals that shouldn't have been receiving food taking meals, with less for intended individuals. FD Sala acknowledged Jayme Mokulehua and Jigs Santos from their team for their efforts to resolve many issues.
